

Adopted BOD November 1990
Updated BOD November 1993

Position Statement on Proper Title of Surgical Technologists

It is the position of the Board of Directors of the Association of Surgical Technologists that professionals in the field of surgical technology bear the proper title of “surgical technologist (ST)” and those that have been certified through the Liaison Council on Certification are properly titled “certified surgical technologist (CST)”.