

Adopted HOD June 1985
Updated BOD November 1993

Organ Donor Programs Resolution

Whereas, The need for compatible organ donors has increased with the advent of newer and safer surgical techniques,

Whereas, Health care providers have established new methods of medical communication in order to solicit and provide compatible organ donors for needy victims; and

Whereas, The Association of Surgical Technologists, Inc., is dedicated to providing quality patient care; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Association of Surgical Technologists, Inc., fully supports the organ donor programs throughout the United States.