Written notice may be served by personal delivery to the applicant or registrant or by mailing the notice by certified mail to his or her last known place of residence or to the place of business last specified by the applicant or registrant in his or her last notification to the Department. In the report, the Department shall make a finding of whether or not the charged registrant or applicant violated a provision of this Act or its rules and shall specify the nature of the violation. In making its recommendations for discipline, the Department may take into consideration all facts and circumstances bearing upon the reasonableness of the conduct of the respondent and the potential for future harm to the public, including but not limited to previous discipline of that respondent by the Department, intent, degree of harm to the public and likelihood of harm in the future, any restitution made, and whether the incident or incidents complained of appear to be isolated or a pattern of conduct.
