

DO YOU KNOW YOUR SURGICAL TECHNOLOGIST?

It's fairly easy to identify doctors and nurses – their likenesses are shown throughout the media and portrayed in shows and movies – but do you know who your surgical technologist is? Chances are, probably not. However, if you're having surgery, your surgical technologist is a critical member of the surgical team watching out for your safety.

It's time to get to know your surgical technologist. Scan the QR code to learn more about the role of a surgical technologist, how important they are to patient safety and meet some surgical technologists from around the country ensuring you're in the best hands every time you go under the knife. #EssentialSurgicalTechnologist #AegerPrimo
